Subject: RESPONSE: Official Information request - More women on boards

Tēnā koe [REDACTED]

In response to your official information request below, the Women in governance 2018 report you are requesting will be available on the Ministry's website during the last week of this month, June 2019. Please refer to the Publications section to view it.

As background, the annual stocktake into the level of women's representation on state and public sector boards is as at 31 December each year. This stocktake is conducted during March and April of each year, with the report then available for publishing in June.

Official Information Act responses

- Please note that the Ministry routinely publishes, to the Ministry's website, responses given to requests made under the Official Information Act 1982. This response will be considered for future publication of Ministry Official Information Act responses. If published, your personal details will be redacted. If you have any concerns or comments related to this, please let us know, within the next two weeks, by replying to this email.

You have the right to seek an investigation and review by the Ombudsman of this decision. Information about how to make a complaint is available at www.ombudsman.parliament.nz or freephone 0800 802 602.

If you require any further information please do not hesitate to contact us, also by replying to this email.
